

STEEL INTERESTS IN WORLD PACT

Business May Be Regulated by International Agreement.

GARY CALLS IT "GOLDEN RULE"

Producers of Nine Countries Meet in Brussels and Accept Project of Co-Operation Advanced by Chairman of United States Steel Corporation.

Brussels, July 5.—The steel interests of America, Canada, England, France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Austria and Spain were represented by 100 delegates who met in conference to-day preliminary to the formation of an international association broadly similar to the American Institute. Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, presided. Judge Gary explained somewhat fully his views concerning a high-minded co-operation in business. "Suppose," said he, "that a company of men engaged in business and possessing much capital, power and influence, should by their conduct, unjust or oppressive, secure universal disapproval, disgust and antagonism on the part of the public—in a brief space of time these men would be driven out of business. Suppose a producer of any commodity for sale should in any way within his power ill treat all of his customers; how long would it be before the producer would be in a hurry to change his ways?"

The Golden Rule. "Suppose an employer of labor manifestly treated his employees unfairly and poorly. In time, as a result of the action of the interested by public sentiment, a remedy would be found, and this after a great interruption of business and a loss of money. Again, let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and selfish and will not produce in proportion to the demand. As a result, this attitude is maintained until destructive results which we all know are almost certain to be realized. "It would be difficult," he continued, "to bring about an ideal in business; yet a right disposition, courage, patience and the application of the highest thought might reach that position. The first essential to this is thorough acquaintance and frequent intercourse. It should be established and continuously maintained," said Judge Gary, "a business friendship which compels one to feel the same concern for his neighbor that he has for himself. It is no less in principle than the Golden Rule applied to business. Is it possible? If it is, it is sometimes, and too often, practiced, and that advantage has been taken by those who have been given confidence by others, but this fact should discourage no one."

Judge Gary then sketched conditions in the United States, where he said advantages had been given to the steel men. Americans, he declared, were anxious to be and keep near to their European friends. "Association Desired." It had been the expressed wish of many of the representatives present to form an international association for the interchange of opinions and information between iron and steel makers of the world concerning all questions relating to the industry, an organization broad in the scope of its activities. He believed it feasible. Necessarily, it should be formed and managed, Judge Gary concluded, so as to avoid any interference or interference of any other institution, and so as to secure public approval. Baron Van Bredon, of the Krupp works, speaking for the German group, warmly supported the idea, and one by one the members representing nations and groups accepted the project. All present had known by correspondence the purpose of the meeting, and had decided in advance to join the Golden Rule movement.

The conference adopted a resolution accepting Judge Gary's proposals, and decided to appoint a committee tomorrow to work out a definite plan.

FUNERAL OF GENERAL EVANS

He Is Laid to Rest in Uniform of Gray He Loved So Well.

Atlanta, Ga., July 5.—In the gray uniform of the Southern Confederacy, the body of General Clement A. Evans, soldier, preacher, past commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, was laid to rest in Oakland Cemetery here this afternoon. National guardsmen, wearing the blue headdress of the United States army, stood in ranks on either side of the casket, and a salute as General Evans' body was lowered into the grave. The funeral was one of the most impressive ever held in this city. The Legislature adjourned out of respect, and the funeral cortege was followed by a large number of citizens. General Evans, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, was a member of the national guard, Confederate veterans and members of the Legislature.

ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

Senator and Mrs. Luke Lea Are Recovering Rapidly.

Washington, July 5.—Senator and Mrs. Luke Lea, who have been patients at a local hospital for several weeks past, had so far recovered to-day that they were able to leave the city for a nearby mountain resort. Senator Lea, weakened by the transfusion of blood to save the life of his wife, is rapidly regaining his strength, and expects soon to resume his active duties.

WRECKED ON MAIDEN FLIGHT

New Idea Monoplane Meets Disaster and Pilot Is Killed.

New York, July 5.—In its maiden flight, a $10,000 New Idea monoplane, equipped with twin revolution motors and twin propellers, was wrecked beyond repair to-day at the Mineola aviation field, and its pilot, Arthur Stone, was stunned and badly injured, but escaped miraculously with his life. The monoplane was designed by Willie McCormick. It showed plenty of speed, but proved unruly at the turns, and the stiff wing blowing finally upset it. Straight for the mine, it plunged from a height of fifty feet, with full power on. As it struck a great cloud of dust went up, and the crash could be heard for a mile. Nobody expected to see Stone alive, but he was picked up breathing and rushed to the nearest hospital.

Fishing Made Safe.

Washington, July 5.—Flying without great risk is made possible even to the inexperienced aviator, by the new naval hydro-aeroplane, according to Captain Washington I. Chambers, in charge of naval aeronautics. Captain Chambers has tried the machine himself, steering it easily at first trial and skimming along at forty-five miles an hour above the water. In case of accident, the flyer would settle comfortably upon the water. When the hangar at Annapolis is completed, the machine will be sent to the Naval Academy for the training of naval officers in aeronautics.

MOBILIZING TROOPS

Drastic Steps Made Necessary by Rebellious Albanians.

Constantinople, July 5.—Preparations have advanced to a stage for the general mobilization of Turkish troops in view of the continued refusal of rebellious Albanians to surrender, and to the activity of Montenegrin forces along the frontier. Government officials at the same time continue optimistic of an ultimate peaceful outcome. They assert that the Montenegrin government is blinding the recall of the Turkish minister at Cetinje is considered not improvable.

Intensions Pacific.

Vienna, July 5.—Telegrams received here to-day from Cetinje say that King Nicholas is sending 2,000 troops to patrol the border between his Montenegrin territory. The King declares that his intention was to send them to keep peace, as long as he is not attacked.

SPEND NIGHT ON SANDS

Merry-Makers Can't Get Home on Account of New Labor Laws.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 5.—Ten thousand Fourth of July holiday makers spent the night on the sands of the various beach resorts last night because the law preventing working hours prevented the suburban lines from bringing them home. Fully half of the marooned throng were women and girls, garbed in the flimsiest of seaside summer costumes. The cold night breezes wrought havoc with their nerves and patience. Cries of anger arose at 11:15 this morning when the trainmen announced that no more cars would be run. The hotel and lodging houses were quickly filled with the overflowed sand. A miserable night on the sands at 11 o'clock this morning extra crews were ordered and cars were rushed to the beaches to the rescue.

SUSPEND RULES FOR TOGO

Japanese Hero May See All of Naval Establishment.

Washington, July 5.—The Japanese naval hero, Admiral Togo, hero of the battle of the Sea of Japan, will have access to see in the New York navy yard, or indeed in any part of the naval establishment. Although a regulation forbids the admission of foreign visitors to the construction in the navy yards, Navy Department officials said that Admiral Togo is expected here to board the giant battleship Florida, now nearing completion in the New York navy yard. Details of the program for the admiral's entertainment have not yet been decided. He is expected to arrive in New York about August 5, where he will be received as the guest of the nation by a number of distinguished officials and army and navy officers.

MANY WANT POSTAL BONDS

Applications for $42,000 Worth Have Been Made.

Washington, July 5.—Postmaster-General Hitchcock announced to-day that applications from depositors to purchase postal savings bonds on July 1 aggregated $42,000. Of this sum, more than $35,000 worth were applied for in registered form, indicating the intention of depositors to retain the bonds as an investment. Fifty additional second class offices were designated to-day by the Postmaster-General as postal depositories. They will be ready to receive deposits on July 25.

GREAT CAISSON A SUCCESS

It Has Met Every Expectation of Builders.

Washington, July 5.—The great caisson built around the wreck of the battleship Arizona, after twenty-five days of construction, met every expectation of its designers. In the opinion of General Bixby, chief of engineers, who has just returned from a personal inspection of the work, "The officer explained the delays in the work on the ground that it was necessary to keep the wreck exposed by hand labor. More time than had been expected was expended after the first pumping in clearing away debris and mud he added."

MURDER SUSPECTED

Police Are Investigating Death of Frank Howard.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 5.—Believing that Frank Howard, aged thirty-five, of Chicago, whose body was recovered from the Monongahela River here yesterday night, was murdered, the police here are investigating to-day. Howard, who sometimes went under the name of "Dr. Hertz," is said to be a gold watch and several valuable diamonds and thrown into the river.

HELD FOR COURT

Detective Accused of Sending Black Hand Letter.

Franklin, Pa., July 5.—Thomas J. Dempsey, head of a private detective agency, was held for court to-day, accused of sending a black hand letter to General Charles A. Miller, millionaire oil magnate. Four handwriting experts testified that the writing on the black hand letter was that of Dempsey. The letter signed by Dempsey are the same.

TAFT IS CLEARLY WITHIN HIS RIGHT

Has Not Over-Stepped Bounds in Fight for Reciprocity.

SENATOR BURTON MAKES DEFENSE

Should President Not Go Before People in Behalf of Measures He Would Not Be Leader of Party or Take High Place in Public Attention.

Washington, D. C., July 5.—The right of President Taft to negotiate the Canadian reciprocity agreement, to send it in completed form to Congress for enactment, and to defend and advocate it in "stump speeches" throughout the country, was asserted in the Senate to-day by Senator Burton, of Ohio, at the conclusion of an important speech in support and explanation of the reciprocity bill.

The Senate agreed at the conclusion of to-day's session to sit daily at 11 o'clock, and it is expected that the session will continue until 6 o'clock. Chairman Penrose, of the Finance Committee, advocated daily sessions at 10 o'clock, but the Democrats who favor the reciprocity bill feared this would be taken as a move to force hasty action and would result in bitter feeling.

Senator Burton's speech followed criticism by Senator Cummins, of Iowa, Republican insurgent, earlier in the day of the speech made by President Taft yesterday at Indianapolis. Senator Cummins said he believed it was better for the President to try to mold opinion by appealing to the people in speeches than for him to use the power of the President's office to pass the bill through Congress, but he criticized vigorously the Indianapolis speech, in which the President said the Canadian agreement would probably not reduce the cost of living.

In His "Clear Right."

"Some degree of censure has been visited upon the administration for sending in this agreement," said Senator Burton. "It is the clear right of the President under the Constitution, to make communications and recommendations to Congress. It is his right to express in the stump in whatever terms he may choose, his advocacy of a certain line of policy."

"Not only President Taft, but his predecessor and other Presidents, have made free to advocate with no recommendation to Congress. It is his right, the President would neither be the leader of his party nor occupy that place in the public attention which the public demands of him."

"Of course, it is for the Senate or the House to accept, reject or amend any proposition that he may send to Congress. Senator Burton urged that the agreement, notwithstanding the power of Congress to change it be passed without amendment. He said it undoubtedly did not please every body; that it probably had satisfied neither President Taft nor the Canadian commissioners when it was completed."

"But it is here," said Senator Burton, "and I strongly urge that it be adopted without change. Any modification renders a situation now delicate more intricate and liable of failure."

Mr. Burton emphasized that those who based their objections to the agreement on the ground that the farmer would suffer injury were virtually fighting for higher duties for the farmer. He said no injury to the farmer could follow the removal of duties on farm products except in certain localities along the border. To keep the duties at the present figure, he said, would be to place the consumer at the mercy of a short market and rising prices when the time arrived that American production does not equal American consumption.

Would Call For Report.

Washington, July 5.—A resolution calling for a report from the Interstate Commerce Commission by January 1 next, on nearly every phase of the express business, including a comparison with railroad rates, physical valuation, operating methods, duplication of directors in express and railroad companies, etc., was introduced to-day by Representative Burleson, of Texas. Mr. Burleson denounced the recent rate reduction by the express companies as a bluff to head off legislation along the border. To keep the rates in Richmond for after a year ago, he said, was a moral, and when he died a number of years ago, he was buried in Richmond. Mr. Burleson was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mouille was a married woman, and when she was married to Mr. Tibbels, she was Miss Tibbels. She was born in Richmond, and was the daughter of a merchant in Richmond, and was born in Richmond eighty-four years ago. Her father was John Tibbels, a trader there. Mr. Mou